High School Nine.

Monday was so raw and cold that the baseball candidates for the Wind-ham high school nine did not have out door practice. Jack Leonard, howev-er, had his colts out on Windham field Tuesday afternoon and from the way the bunch limbered up, one looking on would certainly say "It looks good to muh." It is expected that the squad will be considerably augmented in a few days more and then the weeding out process will set in. Captain Leonard should be given the undivided support of every boy and girl in school. Here's to success.

Features of Warden Mariand's Annual Report-Recommendations for Coming Year-Lecture on Forestry-Rev. George Guirey's Death-Concert at

Warden William H. Marland in his Warden William H. Marland in his annual report as warden of the borough of Danielson reviews a year marked by many events of unusual importance to this community, a year in which, despite business depression and other handleapping circumstances, Danielson has greatly advanced its municipal conveniences and opened its gates to visiting thousands on the occasion of the 200th anniversary of the organization of Killingly as a town. Warden Harland says in part:

"During the past year several im-

"During the past year several im-portant events have taken place in the history of the borough. The celebra-tion of Killingly's bicentennial will long tion of Killingly's bicentennial will long be remembered by our citizens. I feel sure it will be of great benefit to us in the future, for it has given us desirable publicity. The dedication of Killingly High school was a matter of great im-portance for the welfare of the bor-ough, for we now have a modern home (of which we are justly proud) with a superior equipment for the education and training of our young people, fit-ting them to be worthy citizens of this great republic.

"The opening of the Y. M. C. A. is also one of the year's important happenings, for through it we help to develop the moral and physical fibre of our young people and so equip them to do their share of the world's work. I believe that every dollar spent in this manner will pay large dividends to the nation.

Important Interests. "This year also had its municipal interests. When I took up the duties of warden the borough indebtedness was $8,126.46; it is now "4,707.12, an increase of $16,580.67, for which we have to show various improvements and extensions as follows: A building lot, at a cost of $2,400, for the new fire station; we made control fire station; is model control fire station; is stati a cost of $2,400, for the new fire station; a model central fire station that is second to none in any borough in New England of the size of Danielson, for which we have paid, to March 22, $10,991.87; an electric firm alarm telegraph system, with all the latest improvements, installed by the Gamwell company, at a cost of $2,675, and an extension of our sewer system a distance of 874 feet through Winter street, at a cost of $344.98.

Borough Revenues. "The borough lucome from taxes and other sources for the past year was $19,827.31, showing that if it had not been for the new improvements and extensions the indebtedness would have been materially reduced. Interest due on all loans to April 1 has been paid. Approximately a saving of one thousand dollars could have been made during the past year were it not necessary to use that amount to meet insary to use that amount to meet in-terest charges on heavy loans. Actual Saving. Actual Saving.

The actual saving out of last year's receipts was $430.85, besides the interest paid on loans. A total amount of $17,011.55 was paid out during the year. I would like to suggest to our taxpayers that in view of their having the use of the valuable improvements enumerated they ought to be willing not only to pay for their efficient maintenance but also to pay a little towards their cost, and I hope they will bear this in mind when they lay the annual tax and give my successor in office an

"At a special borough meeting held Jan. 7, 1909, we were instructed to sign a contract with the Crystal Water company for hydrant service, which orough will take action towards owning its own water supply. A water works company is a natural monopoly and monopolles should be owned by the people. Progressive cities and boroughs are getting control of their own water supplies for it has been proved that they can be efficiently and economically managed.

Ice cream, cake, candy and nuts were served.

Future Hopeful. Future Hopeful,

"I feel very hopeful in regard to the borough's future. During the past year I have had many opportunities of meeting taxpayers on matters concerning the borough and I have invariably found them public spirited and willing to help along the good work, even when it was at their own expense. In conclusion I thank you for the honor conferred upon me by having been elected to be your warden."

Advocates Ownership of Water System. Warden Marland is very much inter-ested in the matter of the borough purchasing the water system from the Crystal Water company, believing it to be for the best interests of the people that they should own it. He has given the question due consideration 25 cents, according to their facility and may make some recommendations relative to the purchase at the annual meeting on April 12.

Higher Tax Needed. Warden Marland also believes that generations that create municipal debts are responsible in no small dedebts are responsible in no small degree for the pagment of at least a fair part of the obligations they assume. Therefore he recommends that when the tax is laid for the coming year it should be sufficient to produce a revenue ample to meet all the expenses and interest charges the borough will be called upon to meet as well as to allow of paying at least one thousand dollars on the total indebtedness, and this rate of yearly reduction should be continued and if possible increased as payment for the enjoyment of the privileges and protection that have come with the improvements that created ment for the enjoyment of the privi-leges and protection that have come with the improvements that created this past year's extraordinary expendi-
